

NEWSPAPER ADVERTISEMENT

PACT Volunteer Opportunities Now Available

Are you interested in supporting child witnesses through the court process?

PACT is a Queensland-wide non profit community organisation providing court support to child witnesses aged 3-17 years.

Child Witness Support Volunteers are selected through a detailed recruitment process and undergo training to provide effective and appropriate court support to children and their families.

For information about this unique and rewarding position, please visit the PACT website www.pact.org.au or telephone PACT on 3290 0111 to obtain an Information Pack and Application Form. Applications close Monday 28 September 2007.